Mayor Rivera Joins #demsinphilly
Delegate for 2016 Democratic National Convention

July 20, 2016, Lawrence, MA- Mayor Daniel Rivera will be attending the National Democratic Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania next week where he will serve as a delegate from Massachusetts. Mayor Rivera joins prominent Democratic Mayors and statewide elected officials including Mayor Marty Walsh of Boston, Mayor Joe Sullivan of Braintree, Mayor Setti Warren of Newton, Mayor Alex Morse of Holyoke, Attorney General Maura Healey, Senate President Stan Rosenberg, Speaker Bob DeLeo, Treasurer Deb Goldberg, Auditor Suzanne Bump, Secretary William Galvin and Suffolk County Sheriff Steve Tompkins. “I am excited to represent the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the City of Lawrence as a delegate for such an important election for Democrats and our Country,” said Mayor Daniel Rivera. “I look forward to seeing my colleagues and most importantly, witnessing current President Barack Obama and former President Bill Clinton speak first hand. It will also be an honor and a privilege to witness the nomination of a woman by a major party as their candidate for President.”

Mayor Rivera will sit in on multiple caucus sessions next week including Immigration Reform and Latino Caucus and will hear speeches from First Lady Michelle Obama and Senator Bernie Sanders.

Mayor Rivera will be available for press interviews throughout the week in Philadelphia. If you are looking to request an interview, please contact Kate Reilly, Special Assistant to the Mayor at 978-387-4030.

You can keep up with Mayor Rivera via social media throughout the convention.
